County and City Populations.

DENVER July 24—Judge Sopris, who has charge of the census enumeration for the northern half of the state, to day announced the population of these counties as follows:

Counties.	Population.
Arapahoe	133,779
Boulder	14,053
Cheyenne	509
Clear Creek	7,189
Douglas	2,943
Eagle	3,632
Elbert	1,854
El Paso	21,[illegible]
Garfield	4,409
Gilpin	5,694
Grand	603
Jefferson	8,430
Kit Carson	2,461
Larimer	8,108
Lincoln	689
Logan	3,048
Morgan	1,591
Park	8,549
Phillips	2,665
Rio Blanco	1,185
Routt	2,38[illegible]
Sedgwick	1,297
Summit	1,642
Washington	2,316
Weld	11,741
Yuma	2,583
Total	248,75[illegible]

Judge Felton, who has charge of the southern half, has not yet reported but it is believed his report will show the population of the state to be 400,000. The following is the population of some towns in the state:

Cities	Population
Denver	12 ,695
Pueblo	29,840
Colorado Springs	11,200
Boulder	4,100
Golden	2,624
Georgetown	2,771
Greeley	2,600

Pueblo claims to be the only town in the United States which has doubled its population within two years, the census returns in 1888 giving that city but 13,500 population.

They Want Blaine Back.

DENVER, July 24. A New York special to the Times says the Herald prints the following in its Washington dispatches:

The senate finance committee wants Mr. Blaine to come back and run the state department, and here is the reason: Soon after the passage of the silver bill Senator Teller introduced a resolution for an international conference, looking to the rehabilitation of silver by an international agreement. The invitations for such a conference would have to be extended through the state department and in accordance with congressional usage the finance committee referred Mr. Teller's resolution to the secretary of state for his opinion. Yesterday a reply was received, which made Senator Morrill mad, but it only caused the other members to laugh. It was signed by Second Assistant Secretary Adee. The second assistant secretary of the state department politely called the attention of the finance committee to the fact that in accordance with the recommendation of the Pan-American gathering, provision had already been made for a meeting in Washington next January of delegates from the countries represented for the purpose of agreeing on a common silver coin for use on the American continent. With genuine diplomatic instinct the second assistant secretary refrained from committing the state department to the Teller proposition, but certainly expressed the opinion that it "might be advisable to allow the Latin union to participate in the family discussion regarding a common silver coin."

"It would be advisable," he says, "perhaps to invite the governments of countries comprising the Latin union to participate in this conference, so far as to adopt a common ratio between silver and gold, even if they did not enter into the proposed arrangement for a common coin. In this connection it may be suggested as advisable for congress to indicate in some manner by resolution or otherwise, the policy to be pursued by the delegates from the United States to the international monetary conference, to meet in Washington in January next."

I understand that Chairman Morrill is inclined to send a reply back with a curt note to the effect that the opinion of the department has been asked on an international silver conference and not the advisability of "allowing" the members of the Latin union to give their views concerning a common Pan-American silver coin. But the humorous feature of the business has been too much for his colleagues and he will probably accept their suggestion that Mr. Adee's communication be pigeon holed until Secretary Blaine can have a chance to disavow it. There is a friendly feeling in both houses of congress towards the resolution offered by Senator Teller for this international conference and Senator Teller would like to see the invitation issued in a month or two, so that the conference could gather next winter, but it is doubtful if the senate has time to consider the resolution at this session.

The Colorado Central's Washout.

DENVER, July 24. The washout on the Colorado Central is the most disastrous that has occurred since that road was built. The loss is approximated at $250,000. The amount of track washed out covers altogether a distance of twenty miles, five miles from Forks Creek to [illegible] Hill and fifteen miles from Golden to Floyd Hill. The iron bridge at Forks Creek looks like a bundle of wire, it has been so tangled up. It is impossible for the railroad men to estimate accurately the damage done to the road but they admit it must be very large, as the road up through there is a very costly piece of railroad construction. Two work trains and a hundred men have been working on the road since Tuesday noon and if nothing further happens it is promised that trains will be able to get to Forks Creek to day.

Trouble in the Army.

OMAHA, July 24. For a long time there has been considerable discontent and friction throughout the military department of the Platte, evidently brought about by the management from the headquarters, which is not as smooth as it might be. There is, no doubt, sound reason for more or less dissatisfaction, but just what induces it no one seems willing to say. The last unpleasant feature strikes deeper than usual and is likely to give more trouble than perhaps anticipated and result in considerable gossip.

It seems that the commander invited some information from Colonel Kautz relating to his post. The information was given and returned to Colonel Kautz with the endorsement to the effect that he had made statements not in accordance with the facts, whereupon the latter asked for a redress of the grievance and by reply was placed in arrest, thus shutting off the avenues for further application for correction. It is said Colonel Kautz has filed charges against General Brooke for conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, which have been forwarded to the war department. This will no doubt induce charges against Colonel Kautz, if it has not already done so, and it is not very improbable that one of the largest military courts known to the army will be the outcome of that. One of the officers mentioned will probably be relieved from duty in the department.

It seems clear that General Brooke has been made the instrument by which the most prominent candidate, Colonel Kautz, for the next vacancy in a brigadier generalship may be placed out of the way of a few very ambitious men. Colonel Kautz was one of the most gallant soldiers of the war and this attempt to injure his chance for well merited and long-deferred promotion is severely commented on by the military men here and elsewhere.

Interest in the Palace.

PUEBLO, July 24. The Colorado Mineral palace is the subject of universal conversation. The interest manifested exceeds that shown at any time in the history of the institution. This morning Mr. Joseph Hitchings, one of Colorado's leading scenic artists, visited the building and gave general instructions as to the decoration of the immense domes which are the peculiarly attractive features of the massive structure. Under the new order of things universal interest is enlisted and all that has been promised will be fulfilled. Capitalists representing over fifty millions of dollars invested in Colorado, were present at the stockholders meeting. The directory is composed of the most active spirits of Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo, and each member will do his utmost to insure success. The capital stock was raised from $100,000 to $150,000 and that amount will be forthcoming.

The Burning of the Egypt.

LONDON, July 24. The following particulars of the destruction by fire of the National line steamer Egypt have been received: The Manhattan sighted the Egypt in full blaze in latitude 40 degrees 28 minutes north and longitude 38 degrees west but the Manhattan, with oil on board, dared not go near the burning vessel. She lowered boats, however, and saved all on board. Captain Robinson, on board the Manhattan, had only enough provisions for forty persons and a discussion was had as to whether or not to make the Azores, 25 miles distant. Finally it was decided to proceed for Dover. Everyone was placed on short rations. There were 640 head of cattle on the Egypt and all were either burned to death or, breaking loose, plunged overboard and were drowned. For a time there was much confusion on the Egypt but no panic occurred. The National company chartered a tug at Dover to meet the Manhattan and supply her with provisions. She started at 6 o'clock this evening with a full supply of provisions and other necessaries for the rescued people.

A Mysterious Explosion.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 24. W. L. Bullard's boarding house, in this city, a three story dwelling, was blown up early this morning and three persons killed and nine injured, two of whom will probably die. There were thirteen people in the house when an explosion shattered the walls. They collapsed in an instant and fell in a mass of ruins. Most of the occupants of the house were asleep and were buried from their beds and either buried under the falling debris or thrown on top of it. The killed are Mrs. Bullard, a man named Lockley and Gus Robie. The cause of the explosion is a mystery. There are many rumors of an ugly nature, but nobody will take the responsibility of making a direct statement. One man insinuated that there had been a row in the house, toward the end of a jollification in which the inmates were indulging last night.

Crawled Into the Brush to Die.

DENVER, July 24. A Leadville special says: Marshal White found a man this morning lying in the brush under the Colorado Midland bridge, half a mile from the city. When lifted up he was unable to stand, and was taken to town in an express wagon. The man proved to be a party who came to Leadville the first of the week. He was troubled with rheumatism and was without friends or means of any kind. He could find no work, and having no place to stop started to walk to Pueblo where he claimed to have friends. After walking half a mile he gave out and had crawled into the underbrush to die. He had laid in the open air without shelter or food for twenty-four hours when found. With good care he may recover, but it is doubtful.

A Gubernatorial Candidate's Fear.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 24. B. R. Tillman, running on the alliance plan for governor, arrived here yesterday but says he will not speak at the democratic mass meeting to day because he fears assassination. Policemen and detectives were stationed at his hotel all day yesterday, and this morning they were reinforced by 100 of Tillman's chosen band from Edgefield. No fears are entertained here for his molestation, although the city is thick with rumors of a very wild character.

Transportation to Encampment.

CHICAGO, July 24. The Michigan Central and other railways here are making extensive preparations for the transportation of members of the Grand Army of the Republic, Womans' Relief corps and other kindred organizations to the national encampment to be held in Boston the second week in August. The announcement is made to day that a special headquarters train will leave Denver August 9th and go from here over the Michigan Central. A number of special trains will be run from Denver and from Chicago.

Engineer McCormick's Funeral.

DENVER, July 24. The funeral of Robert McCormick, who was killed at the Rock Island accident at Limon Monday night, took place here to day. It was conducted by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Protested Against the Bill.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 24. A public meeting was held at the chamber of commerce to day and resolutions protesting against the passage of the election bill, were passed. The resolution ignored the proposed boycott against northern tradesmen.

MANITOU.

Hop to night at the Barker.

The soda baths are having a great deal of patronage these days.

John S Howard, a retired sea captain, of Jacksonville, Florida, is a guest at the Arlington.

Mrs. M. A. Adams, Miss Grace Adams and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McLean, of St. Louis, compose a happy party at the Cliff.

J. D. Shuford, cashier of the bank at Sheridan Lake, is a guest at the Barker. Mr. Shuford is by no means a stranger in Manitou.

The Sunny Side registers Professor Alexander Winchell, the eminent geologist of Michigan university, among its recent arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Champlin and Miss Nettie Champlin, are again at the Mansions, having returned from their trip around the circle.

Mr. H. H. Tammen, the well known specimen dealer of Denver, wielded the pen on the page of the Mansions register yesterday. He is down with a party of friends.

Prof. F. W. Kroenke, editor of the Western World, was in Manitou yesterday gathering material for the El Paso county edition of that journal, which is shortly to appear.

Manitou has many more people proportionately from Texas than ever before. Every day the hotel registers show people from this state, many of whom come in parties to remain some time.

Dr. C. G. Davis, a well known physician of Chicago, has come to Manitou for a stay of a week or ten days. Dr. Davis has just come in from a fine hunting trip in the northwestern part of the state.

The Half-Way house is having a great many guests. There were sixty five persons who dined there on Thursday. The popular way is to make the Half Way house in the afternoon and spend the night, then take horses from there to the peak. Fifteen guests did this yesterday.

The coaches for the Pike's Peak and Manitou railroad were shipped from Springfield, Mass., three days ago and will probably arrive in Manitou about August 10th. Track laying was completed yesterday as far as the Half-Way house. Cars will be running to that point by the middle of August.

The Whitney Rocky Mountain excursion has its cars side-tracked in Manitou. The party very soon saw that it would take more time to see all of Manitou than they had planned. Almost the entire party took carriages yesterday morning to the Garden of the Gods and in the afternoon to the Grand caverns.

The bottling machinery of the Manitou Mineral Water company is being set in their new building. Moving into the new building has been going on gradually. The offices are to be transferred at once and all will then be completed. Now that the capacity is enlarged the large number of orders which have been filed ahead will be filled.

The grounds about the Denver and Rio Grande depot are very beautiful. Much care and labor is expended in keeping the grounds in trim condition. The recent rains have made the lawns and flower beds put forth their brightest color. This is the first sight which greets the tourist when they alight from their long, dusty and dry ride across the plains and is much appreciated.

GREEN MOUNTAIN FALLS

The evening hops at the pavilion and hotel are becoming more and more popular.

Rev. T. B. Conners and wife, of Denver, have rooms at the Terrace for the season.

Dr. E. C. Atkins, wife and child, of Denver, are quartered at the hotel for the season.

Miss L. Stickney, Cincinnati, and Miss B. A. Dutton, Cleveland, are at the hotel for the season.

C. E. Bullen, president of the Bullen Bridge company, Leavenworth, Kas., is stopping at the Falls.

J. M. Ellison, of the D. & R. G., Colorado Springs, with his wife, spent Wednesday at the Falls.

Mrs. B. and Miss M. L. Strong, of New York city, are late arrivals and permanent guests at the hotel.

W. H. Gumm's livery is in great demand. His carriages, riding horses, and burros, are all in constant use.

The Green Mountain Falls company is in receipt of from ten to thirty applications for accommodations, daily.

M. Divley, Kansas City, is a late arrival at the hotel. Mr. Divley is much pleased with our mountain resorts.

J. T. Greenlees, a prominent commission broker of Kansas City, has rooms at the hotel. He is accompanied by his wife.

City Passenger Agent A. N. Oliver of the D. & R. G. railroad, Denver, accompanied the grocers' excursion to the Falls.

W. W. Doty and wife, of Pueblo, spent Wednesday at the Falls. Mr. Doty is the manager of the Grand hotel at Pueblo.

Rev. Dr. Kirkwood, Colorado Springs; Rev. J. W. Hutchinson, Sioux Falls, Dakota, and Dr. L. P. Hodges, Chicago, spent Wednesday at the Falls.

Prof. Irwin Shepard, of the Minnesota State normal, Winona, spent Thursday at the Falls, arranging accommodations for himself and fifteen friends.

Many are already taking advantage of the special sale of lots beginning August 1st, and are choosing locations to be taken upon the opening of the sale.

Mr. H. C. Coffman, city ticket agent of the Midland, Denver, ran down with Thursday's excursion. Mr. Coffman is a genial gentleman, and very popular with excursionists.

Mrs. E. W. Laird, of Cleveland, and Miss Mattie Mathews, of Stillwater, Minn., took their first view of Green Mountain Falls Wednesday, the 23d. They were pleased with the surroundings and took rooms for the remainder of the season at the hotel.

The wholesale and retail grocers' excursion to the Falls, from Denver yesterday, was a grand success. They came a thousand strong, requiring thirteen coaches and four engines to haul them. The Denver military band furnished sweet music for merry dancers, while hundreds who did not care to dance climbed the mountains or nestled beneath the fragrant pines. At 6 o'clock the two excursion trains left for Denver, all on board feeling that the day had been well spent.

CASCADE.

The Misses De Coursey and Mr. Phelps rode down the pass from Manitou Park Monday evening.

Rev. W. F. Slocum remained over night at the Ramona Tuesday, on his way to Manitou park.

Wm. F. Freeman and S. C. Freeman of Albany, N. Y., came up this week to look after their Ute park interests and take a trip to the peak.

Cascade is a desirable summer resort for children. There are a large number at the hotel with their parents and they are fat, hearty and well and their merry laughter may be heard at all hours of the day.

An interesting game of progressive euchre was played Tuesday evening with seven tables. Miss Farnsworth, of Topeka, won the first lady's prize, a book of pressed wild flowers and Mr. Fred. Walters, of Denver, the first gentleman's prize, a gold headed pencil.

Mrs. Granger, the housekeeper of the Ramona, was prostrated by overwork and obliged to give up her position and return to Wichita. The hotel was a model one for order and neatness and she made many warm friends during her stay here. Miss Weaver a teacher in the Wichita schools returned at the same time after a two months' stay.

Mr. Broadhurst met a number of members of the Austin Bluff company at the reservoir at the head waters of the West Monument Tuesday to inspect the working of the new dam and reservoir. The water has been turned in and the company expects to have 100,000,000 gallons stored for use in dry seasons. There is an abundance of water in this Pike's Peak region that if stored would give Colorado Springs and the ranchmen too an ample supply.

There are parties spending the summer in this canon who have traveled over this country and visited the most romantic places of Europe, and they claim to have seen nothing equal to the attractions of which nature has been so prodigal here, or such beautiful cloud effects against so wonderfully blue a sky. The great snowy masses poise on the summits of the mountains, of which they seem a reverse reflection, and rapidly change their forms in a way that shows every effect of the dazzling sunlight and then suddenly roll out of sight, or sail majestically away into the sky before the wind and other masses take their places in the shifting panorama of the air.

The heavy rains in Ute Pass this week have kept the Fountain a boiling, muddy angry stream but they solve the question of a supply of water for irrigation for the present. The storms have been unusually severe and travelers to the peak have had to take their chances on obtaining a view. The drivers' report Monday to have been the grandest day for sight seeing and cloud effects of the season. While they were on the summit a storm raged below and enveloped the earth in clouds while the sun shone on the peaks above and around them. When half way down the clouds rolled up and around them and gathered on the peak and a furious hail and snow storm prevailed; but the sun shone on the hillsides and in the pass and the colors of vegetation wore a dazzling vividness. It is very pleasant to let travelers go away with such wonderful impressions of our scenery.

Are we to Exhibit?

Mr. Irwin Mahon, special commissioner of the bureau of immigration, arrived in the city yesterday to make a final effort in the direction of inducing the people of this county to add its portion to the state exhibit at the St. Louis exposition. Mr. Mahon is very much disgusted with the indifferent way in which the people of the county have acted in the matter. We have as splendid natural resources as any county in the state and some manufactures, but they will be poorly represented unless the people arouse. There will be a few days of grace allowed, so that there is time yet. Mr. Mahon says that the exhibit will be very grand whether El Paso joins in or not, but he is anxious that we should be properly represented as we deserve. He says that the exhibit of minerals will be the finest ever made in the world and that Gilpin county's exhibit alone will be worth $100,000. Let our wool men, our stone and mineral paint men, our manufacturers, etc., bestir themselves in this matter. Mr. Geo. O. Nevins is the proper person to consult with. The Rio Grande road has had magnificent views made of the scenery along its route to be exhibited, so that we will get considerable advertising in that way.

Captain Sewall Resigns.

DENVER, July 24. Captain Thomas Sewall, of the Denver signal corps, Colorado National Guards, at a meeting held last night, tendered his resignation to take effect as soon as his successor can be appointed. Business which will necessitate his absence from the city is the cause.

New York wants a recount. She needs a monument to Grant more.

Blaine is getting a strong following in his attacks on the McKinley bill. Hatton and Halstead have gone into action in Blaine's behalf.

Kansas City is an excellent illustration of the false claims of an incorrect census by the "boom" cities. On account of representations made at Washington a recount was ordered in twenty-four districts. The result of the recount shows that the first census was nearly correct. Some nine hundred fraudulent names were struck off in one district but there are few other changes. The Commercial club is now well satisfied to have the first count remain with the deduction of the nine hundred names.

It would be comical, if it did not cost so much, to read in the Denver News about the state gang which is said to have gotten away with $164,000 in printing, stationery and furniture contracts. When we remember the News did what it could to obstruct the investigation that showed up frauds and that its columns were open to the men responsible for these frauds, and were used to protect them from justice, its protestations for reform are more than a farce. The News' conscience is alone pricked by the loss of a railroad job, printing contract.

The Denver and Rio Grande Railway company has a surveying party in the field looking for a route to Tin Cup. The Denver and Rio Grande is a pioneer road in the development of new sections of the mining region. The fact that it is looking for a route to Tin Cup may encourage the owners of prospects in that promising camp to push the development of their claims. Tin Cup is the mining sensation of this year, and it is to be hoped that its mineral output in days to come will justify the good things that have been said about it. It is, furthermore, to be hoped that if the Rio Grande builds the contemplated line it will make its rates reasonable enough to admit of the shipment of ore. A railroad company is not much advantage to a mining camp when its ore rates are exorbitant.—[Republican.

This seems to be written by the editor who can write a book and not really say anything. What would be the use of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad making the extension, unless it established rates so that it could do business?

The Washington correspondent of the Denver Republican gives a statement regarding the president's cottage at Cape May which is worthy of attention. Undoubtedly the story of the gift has hurt the president. However pure the intentions may be, such gifts are likely to be used successfully to influence official action. Nothing in President Harrison's past record justifies the idea that he is a man likely to receive such gifts. The true story seems to be the following from the Republican correspondent:

When the Philadelphia gentlemen representing the donors of the cottage, Mr. McKean and Mr. Wanamaker, called at the White house with the key of the cottage and the deeds, the president was at lunch entirely unconscious of any intention on the part of his friends to give him anything. He was called into the red parlor, where he found the two gentlemen explaining the plans of the cottage to Mrs Harrison. In a few words Mr. McKean told the purport of the gift and handed the key to his wife. It was a trying moment. Confronted by such generosity and taken unawares, some men might have lost presence of mind, but the president kept cool, and after expressing his warmest thanks to the gentlemen for the gift and for their kind desires, he said that he and his family would gladly accept the cottage, but upon terms that should be determined upon later. Thus did he give his acceptance of the present, conditioned on future reimbursement, even before the fact of the gift had become known at all. It was upon these terms that Mrs. Harrison and the family first went down to Cape May. Soon after their arrival with his original decision firm in his own mind, the president set on foot investigation that brought him to information as to the amount of money that had been expended in the investment, and as soon as he was sure of the sum he drew a check for $10,000 and forwarded it to McKean, with the request that by its means the original purchasers should be reimbursed for their outlay. Thus he became actual owner of the property. This was not done, it is stated, in consequence of the criticisms that followed the public announcement of the presentation, for the president gave notice of his intention even before a line had been printed about the matter. He simply followed, as one of the president's friends said to-day, an invariable custom of his. A custom that he has adhered to for years, both before and since his election, not to accept presents of value from his friends. A custom that has been inspired by the feeling of honor and pride which any gentleman has whose purse is quite amply sufficient to meet his needs and wants.

Fifty-First Congress

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 24 Morgan introduced a bill to fix a limit on the value of and to provide for the free coinage of silver. It was referred to the committee on finance. It recites that the market value of silver bullion is rapidly approaching the value of gold by the standard ratio fixed by the laws of the United States and that there is no provision of law for the coinage of standard silver dollars or the purchase of silver bullion by the government when the value of the silver bullion exceeds one dollar for 371¼ grains of pure silver. It therefore provides that the unit of value in the United States shall be the dollar of 412½ grains of standard silver, or 25 8-10 grains of gold; that these dollars shall be legal tender for all debts public and private, and that any owner of silver or gold bullion may deposit it at any mint to be coined into dollars. He called the special attention of the finance committee to the bill, which he said was the same which had already received a majority of [illegible] in the senate. He had introduced it [illegible] he was convinced that, [illegible] advance of the price of silver [illegible] in the markets of the world [illegible] not far distant, to say the [illegible] silver and gold bullion would [illegible] with each other. When that [illegible] arrive the law as it now stood [illegible] the government to buy [illegible] any shade of appreciation in its price beyond the price of gold, and there was no provision of law for the coinage of any silver except that purchased before silver reached that point. In view of what appeared to be in the air, as well as on land and sea, in regard to the immediate future of the country, he thought it would be well enough to make provisions so that silver or gold bullion would not be withdrawn from the United States by other interested governments and hoarded up in their great banking institutions.

The senate resumed consideration of the Indian appropriation bill.

At 2 o'clock the tariff bill came up as "unfinished business" and was laid aside till to-morrow.

Pettigrew offered an amendment appropriating $45,000 for the Santee tribe of Sioux, located at Flandreau, S. D., being an allowance of a dollar an acre for land to which they are entitled. It was agreed to.

The bill was then reported to the senate and all the amendments agreed to in committee of the whole were concurred in and the bill passed.

After executive session the senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

The house proceeded after a short parliamentary wrangle to vote upon the committee amendments to the bankruptcy bill. These amendments were principally verbal.

In view of the fact that the bill had never been read in the house, McMillin, of Tennessee, demanded a separate vote on each amendment. Much time was thus consumed.

The committee amendments having been disposed of an amendment was adopted enforcing the laws giving wages for labor the preference.

A vote was then taken on the minority substitute which is known as the voluntary bankruptcy bill. This was disagreed to, yeas 74, nays 125.

The Torry bankruptcy bill was then passed with unimportant amendments, yeas 117, nays 82.

The house then adjourned.

An All-Night Session.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 24. The republican state convention which met here yesterday remained in session all night. At 2 o'clock this morning the committee on resolutions reported a platform which was adopted. It endorses Harrison's administration, approves the national legislation on silver, endorses the disability pension bill, declares in favor of a service pension bill, favors the Australian ballot, opposes land monopoly, recognizes the right of labor to organize, favors the control of railroads by legislation and favors postal telegraph. A resolution endorsing prohibition was tabled.

The following ticket was nominated: For governor, L. D. Richards; secretary of state, J. C. Allen; state auditor, Thos. H. Benton; treasurer, Capt. J. E. Hill; attorney general, H. H. Hastings; land commissioner, George Humphreys; state superintendent of instruction, A. K. Gawdy.

The Salvadorians Successful

LIBERTAD, July 24. News has just been received confirming the reports of the success of the Salvadorian forces beyond the frontier in Guatemalan territory. The Salvador army has now gained six battles and captured quantities of arms and ammunition and many of the Guatemalans have been killed and wounded. The Salvadorian forces are pushing their way into the interior of Guatemala and meeting with success at every step. Great enthusiasm prevails. The intention is to overthrow the government of President Barillas before coming to any agreement with Guatemala. San Salvador is determined to free herself from the yoke of Guatemala, and assure her own liberty and independence.

Minnesota Republicans.

ST. PAUL, July 24 The republican state convention met to-day, committees were appointed and a recess taken until 2 p. m.

At the afternoon session the committee on permanent organization reported in favor of making the temporary organization permanent and the report was adopted. A platform was reported and unanimously adopted.

The nominations for governor being in order the names of Wm R. Merriam, the present governor, W. W. Braden, the present state auditor and ex Congressman Knute Nelson, were presented. The first ballot resulted, Merriam 135, Nelson 74, Braden 34.

Governor Merriam was brought into the convention by a committee and made a brief speech of thanks. The remainder of the ticket is as follows: Lieutenant governor, G. S. Ives, of Nicolette; state treasurer, A. R. Joseph, of Bibloter; secretary of state, F. R. Brown, of Faribault county; state auditor, P. J. McGuire, of Polk county; attorney general, Moses E. Strikers Becoming Turbulent

NEW YORK, July 24. The striking cloak makers are becoming turbulent and are resorting to violence to enforce their demands. Last night twenty of them entered the apartments of Mrs. Celia Bender, No. 4 Allen street, and beat her badly. She employs a dozen hands and these were threatened and chased away. The strikers smashed Mrs. Bender's furniture.

The strike was settled to night and the men return to work in the morning. Through the exertions of Coroner Levy an agreement was reached which is satisfactory to both parties. The manufacturers recognize the union and will discharge all non-union men in their employ, reserving the right, however, to employ the American girls who are working for them. About 6000 Hebrews will return to work to-morrow.

Stock Market.

NEW YORK, July 24. The stock market showed a little animation to day in spots but, as yesterday, attention was concentrated upon sugar refineries and the large dealings in that stock were sufficient to bring transactions in the unlisted department again up above those in the regular list. The forenoon's trade was marked by extreme dullness but in the afternoon the market advanced slightly and the advance continued well into the last hour when realizations compelled some reaction.

Colorado Springs Gardens.

There are few every day interests which so directly concern the health of the family, especially at this season of the year, as the business of the milkman. To deprive us of the staple he serves would be that of a great loss to most of us, certainly to our children, for upon it their proper nourishment depends. When we consider the many complaints made by the press and people regarding impure milk, and the numerous devices resorted to by unscrupulous dealers to impose upon an unsuspecting public an impure article, it becomes a matter of importance to know with whom you are dealing. In this connection I would invite the closest inspection of every department of the management of our cattle—their food, the water they drink, the facilities the animals have for obtaining water at any time, and our system of handling the milk after obtaining it to the time of delivering it to the many families we supply.

Respectfully,

F. W. ISHAM, - Manager.

Has arrived in Colorado Springs and can be consulted at

Rooms 12 and 14,

Alamo Hotel!

Prof. Samuels

Offers to those who are suffering from weakness and defective eyesight his improved Crystal Spectacles, superior to any others in use, as the following evidence, taken from the Topeka Capital, of persons who have worn them for years will testify, and the rest will speak for itself.

The following are a few of his numerous unsolicited testimonials:

GOVERNOR'S TESTIMONIAL.

STATE OF KANSAS, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE, TOPEKA, May 17th, 1880.

To Whom It May Concern:

I have been compelled to use glasses for the past three or four years, especially at night. During all this time I have tried a good many different glasses, but have never found anything entirely satisfactory until recently.

The glasses furnished and fitted to my eyes by Prof. Samuels are the finest and only ones I have ever used which gave entire satisfaction. I therefore take pleasure in commending Prof. Samuels to all persons who may need his services, believing him to be possessed of extraordinary skill in the line of his profession. Very respectfully,

LYMAN U. HUMPHREY,
Governor of Kansas.

PROF. H. G. LARIMER,

TOPEKA, Kan., April 17.

To whom this may come:

I cheerfully commend to your confidence and patronage Prof. H. Samuels, who corrected a very aggravated case of compound astigmatism in my eyes by fitting me with glasses. He thoroughly understands his business, and I have found him reliable in all that he undertakes. No one need feel any hesitation in trusting to his skill as an optician, as he is both a scientist and an artist in that line of work.

Very respectfully,
H. G. LARIMER,
Principal Topeka High School.

CHANCELLOR SNOW.

LAWRENCE, Kan., August 10, 1883.

It gives me great pleasure to certify to the great benefits received by my son and daughter, aged respectively 12 and 10 years, by the use of Prof. H. Samuels' glasses. Both of them had suffered from defective sight, so that they had been compelled to abandon school for more than a year. Other eminent authorities had prescribed for them without success, but Prof. Samuels' spectacles gave them immediate and permanent relief. My son is now able to do entirely without glasses, his eyes having been restored to their natural condition by the timely and skillful application of artificial aid.

F. H. SNOW,
Chancellor University of Kansas.

ADJ.-GEN. J. N. ROBERTS.

LAWRENCE, Kans., July 2, 1884.

Professor Samuels:

DEAR SIR—The glasses you fitted to my eyes last fall did all you promised. My eyes recovered their strength rapidly, and I have had no occasion to use your glasses for the last six months. Respectfully,

J. N. ROBERTS.

AN OPEN LETTER.

From Lieut.-Gov. A. J. Felt.

TOPEKA, May 14, 1880.

Professor Samuels, Topeka:

DEAR SIR:—Please allow me to say a word for your eyeglasses. For many years the gradual loss of eyesight has caused me unspeakable trouble and annoyance. During that period it was my misfortune to purchase glasses of various dealers, always resulting in the conclusion that the attempt to improve my vision by wearing glasses, was an absolute failure. A few weeks since a friend advised me to call on you for advice. The result was the purchase of glasses you recommended and it seems a duty due to others suffering from impaired vision to state that the result has been satisfactory in every particular and that their value to me cannot be measured in money. The work required of me since purchasing your glasses has been unusually trying, and it has surprised and gratified me beyond expression to learn that my vision has greatly improved and that my eyes seem stronger and my vision clearer than for many years before. Very respectfully,

A. J. FELT.

OFFICE HOURS: 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

At a meeting of the Firemen's band recently that organization was disbanded, but immediately organized under the name of "The Centennial State Band," with the following officers: M. O. The new organization have fitted up quarters in the Odle & McFerran block on Huerfano street in good shape and are open for all engagements. Judge J. L. Williams sold his ranch through the real estate agency of Chas. L. Tutt & Co. The ranch contains about 520 acres, located north of Roswell and was purchased by an English syndicate. As the property has a great many very fine springs—the purchasers propose to build large reservoirs and develop the water. They will begin the construction at once of a lake that will cover between 20 and 25 acres of land. As this property lays much higher than the city ditch the water could be utilized to good advantage should the plan prove a success.

There is every indication that the ball game in Athletic park to-day will be witnessed by an audience equal to the one at the athletic sports on Decoration day. The game will undoubtedly be a spirited one and equal to any of the association games. The battery for the Des Moines nine will be Somers and Traffley and for the Denvers Darnbrough and Wilson. If this game receives the patronage which it deserves, all the professional clubs which visit Denver with open dates will be brought down to play games in this city. The price of admittance has been fixed at a figure no higher than that charged in the larger cities, viz: 50 cents general admission and 25 cents extra for a seat in the grand stand. The game will commence at 3.30 o'clock.

NOTICE.

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO., June 18th, 1890

To Whom it May Concern:

Being informed that Mr. James Graham says I sold my milk route to him before selling the same to the Broadmoor Dairy Company, I take this means of informing the public that any such assertion is false, and further that my late employees have not got the slightest claim to this route, inasmuch as I paid them fully for any services rendered while it was being "BUILT UP" at my expense.

"A Little

Leaven leaveneth much bread" Those who make soups for sale seem to think the same principle applies to tomatoes as to leaven. You know when you are eating their tomato soup because the label says so. It might be difficult to tell in any other way. Most ladies can make it to suit their own taste better. Then, too, they know what is in it. Our "Seedless" Tomatoes are ready for use. They are cheaper than ordinary canned tomatoes, although we have both "Seedless" and Silver State. Ask your grocer for them
